

Accessibility Statement

Connex Marketing GmbH is committed to making its websites and mobile applications accessible – in accordance with the legal requirements for digital accessibility in Austria.

The legal requirements are based on the Federal Act on Barrier-Free Access to Websites and Mobile Applications of Public Bodies (Web Accessibility Act – WZG) in conjunction with the provisions of the Federal Disability Equality Act (BGStG).

Accessibility is implemented based on the international guidelines of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG), currently WCAG 2.2, conformance levels A and AA.

1. Accessibility Status

This website is largely accessible; however, not all requirements have been fully met.

2. Non-Accessible Content

Content-Related Barriers

- PDF and Office documents are not fully accessible (missing tags, insufficient structure, non-accessible tables).
- Language mixing on the website: Some sections contain English terms without correct language markup in the code.
- Date fields are currently plain text input fields: input is only possible in the format DD.MM.YYYY (e.g. 28.06.2025).

Disproportionate Burden

According to Article 5 of Directive (EU) 2016/2102, an exception may be claimed for certain content due to disproportionate burden. Despite our efforts, the following content cannot currently be provided in a fully accessible form:

Older PDF and Office documents:

Many PDF and Word documents published before 28.06.2025 are not accessible. These documents may lack proper structure, alternative text for images, or contain complex tables that cannot be remediated without additional resources in the short term.

- New documents are provided in an accessible format wherever possible.
- If you need a specific document in an accessible version, please contact us.

3. Review of This Statement

Evaluation Method: Self-assessment (internal tests using various browsers and keyboard navigation) and automated testing with WAVE.

4. Feedback and Contact Information

If you notice any accessibility issues on this website or require information on non-accessible content, please contact us:

Connex Marketing GmbH, Dr. Schauer-Straße 26, 4600 Wels, E-Mail: privacy@connexgroup.net

5. Arbitration Procedure

If you believe this website is not accessible, you can contact the above-mentioned office.

If you do not receive a satisfactory response within six weeks, you may contact the responsible arbitration board:
